As noted previously, we have placed you in the "all other" category for purposes of assessing fees and as such are obligated to charge you search fees in accordance with 32 C.F.R. §286.12. You are entitled to 2 hours of search time for no charge. We did not incur fees above the 2 hours of search, so no fees will be assessed for this request.

We have processed the requested six records for releasability and responsive portions of each record are released to you via FOIAonline. One document is released in full, one document is partially exempt under FOIA exemption (b)(4) and four additional documents are partially exempt under (b)(4) and (b)(6). This letter closes out your request. The following exemptions to disclosure under FOIA apply to certain portions of the requested records:

- FOIA Exemption 4 [5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4)], which protects from disclosure "trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person [that is] privileged or confidential." The trade secrets associated with these exemptions relate to proprietary Laboratory Standard Operating Procedures.
- FOIA Exemption 6 [5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6)], which protects from disclosure information that, if disclosed, would invade an individual's personal privacy.

In view of the above, you may consider this to be an adverse determination that may be appealed. Since you have created an account in FOIA online, you may submit an appeal directly within the web-based system. To do this, you would log in to your account, retrieve your original request, and then click on the "Create Appeal" tab in the left-hand column. The basic information from your request will be duplicated for you, and then you can type in the basis of your appeal. If you prefer to use regular mail, you may submit an appeal to:

The Department of the Navy
Office of the General Counsel (ATTN: FOIA APPEALS)
1000 Navy Pentagon, Room 5A532
Washington, DC 20350-1000

Your appeal, if any, must be transmitted (if appealing by FOIA ONLINE) or postmarked (if appealing by mail) within 90 calendar days from the date of this letter. Please be advised that a FOIA requestor has the burden of proving timely submission of an appeal. Additionally, you must include in your appeal a statement indicating why you believe your appeal should be granted, and you are encouraged to also include a copy of your initial request and a copy of this letter.
